Chair Report, Samuel Chang

- Budget committee meeting after this
- Think of status of Che Café facility and whether we should continue to use it or give a temporary new place, should we move it to a new place or continue with safety issues present
- Jehoan: If we get them to move will they move back?
- If there were said renovations, we can discuss that afterwards
- Louie: Are we moving to old student center as Claire suggested?
- I suppose that's where they would go
- Claire: We should get some reps from Che Cafe here so we can discuss
- Sammy: Yes will speak with them
- Justin: Is the Che Café safety issue separate from tax issue?
- 2 different issues yes
- Hue: If we don't do renovations, are we going to scrap the place?
- I hope not, but if UCAB doesn't take the stand, we don't want a crafts center situation to happen again
- Claire: Would it be possible to move Che Café to where crafts center is? Its straightedge so it's different from Porters Pub
- It's a thought but we have to find donors

- Tiffany: Wanted us to ask whether we want the Che facility renovated?
- Educate constituents about what Che Café is and then ask them, so we can explain what it has done for UCSD
- Sharon: It's important to have this to conversation in context of budgetary situation.
- Claire: What is the progress of the budget report?
- Almost done with it

Feedback for meeting with Dlush

- Colin: Revelle had comments about wait time and ingredients listed to be in drinks weren't actually in drinks and paper menus are not sustainable
- Louie: There from 12-2 pm there, so starting from rush hour. 3 min 21 sec wait for Tapex and 5 min 37 sec wait for Dlush
- Lavender lemonade doesn't have lavender. All dissatisfied about product. After 1:30 line significantly reduced. So only 1 min 35 sec wait. Going to get rid of paper menu once wallpaper comes in.
- Hue: When are you meeting with Dlush?
- Sharon: Next week
- Tiffany: Waited for food for awhile, but gave free drink because of it, wrong order. Employees are just not used to serving that's it. Manager took employees to the side and talked to them.
- Claire: Felt that having food and drinks separate was confusing. Manager apologized about timing, and they are going to bring in more décor and menu wallpaper. Order took awhile but vegetarian order accidentally had meat in it

- Ellen: When they make these mistakes it's good to apologize but they need to get their act together so they have a good reputation. That's why they had this time
- Louie: Piece of hair on food and manager gave him drink and new sandwich
- Elyssa: Hair thing happens anywhere. Everything I've gotten is delicious. Wait times were very long and by being there people don't take drinks on the counter for 5 minutes. For 1st week one big line, but started to segregate into 3 smaller line.
- Claire: People appreciated the seating and the fact that there were outlets
- Prices were fair for drinks.
- Justin: Like all the comfortable seating that they have provided
- Louie: one girl reordered her drink, she changed in to green tea lemonade, and they were able to change it for her. They will remake drink for you if you aren't satisfied. Pricing is reasonable. Should do the same as Tapex with their lines, to guide people
- Jason: Gave an exact time when my order would be ready but used diff noodles than soba noodles described in menu
- Elyssa: Have donut holes that aren't on menu yet, can we add that to the wallpaper menu?
- Sharon: lounge area is common area space so Dlush pays from counter back
- Jehoan: SFAC transportation referendum
- Sammy: Referendum was done badly because SFAC was going through all details for it, violating some policies so we weren't stalling, not including summer session for transportation is against graduate students. Auditing transportation as well. Make sure that this referendum is representative of all student councils. If we say we need to let transportation pass we would be doing a disservice to students
- Louie: Hospitality and service (8 votes) education and learning (9 votes) flexibility and adaptability (12 votes), abstain (6 votes)
- Bryan: Round table- Didn't care if it is gone because they don't go there. If the new place has cheap beer then it's ok. Some didn't know we had a Round Table. Go more frequently to Porters Pub because closer to Revelle.
